GEN. BURNSIDE VISITED NORWICH

Was Guest of A. H. Almy Here Fifty Years Ago—Merchants Bank Voted to Nationalize—Extra Dividend of One Per Cent. Declared By Norwich Savings Society—Death of Mrs. Lydia Huntley Sigourney, Most Distinguished Daughter of Norwich.

Included in the military promotions announced fifty years ago was that of Brevet Major Gen. H. W. Birge of this city from command at the post of Savannah to command of that military district. During the same week the stockholders of the Merchants Bank voted to nationalize and the Norwich Savings Society declared an annual dividend of 3 per cent. and an extra dividend of 1 per cent. payable on and after July 15, 1865. Extracts from the '65 files of the Bulletin follow: June 12, 1865.—Brevet Major Gen. H. W. Birge of this city has been promoted from command of the post at Savannah to the command of that military district, vice Grover, relieved.

Captain Joseph P. Rockwell, 18th regiment, 1st brigade, 1st division, 1st corps, at Harper's Ferry, Va. is in town on leave of absence. He reports that there is no immediate prospect of the return of the 18th, though they will doubtless be mustered out before their term expires.

The first regular meeting of the Norwich Horticultural Society was held at their rooms last evening. The time was principally occupied by discussing matters connected with the exhibition of the society. A special committee was appointed to select awards for the exhibition on Friday. The society now numbers over 100 members and bids fair to succeed. Let the public sustain it and it will be sure to do so.

Strawberries, Roses, Weddings.
The month of June will be memorable here and hereabouts for its extraordinary crops of strawberries, roses and weddings. Scarce a day has passed this month that we have not chronicled some of the latter important events, either here or in the immediate vicinity of the city and the cry is still coming. All over the country the same state of events is said to exist.

General Burnside's Visit.
Friday, June 16, 1865.—Major Gen. Burnside was in town Thursday, the guest of A. H. Almy. Having occasion to visit the new bank building in the afternoon, he was surrounded by a large number of citizens and had to undergo a general handshaking. During the evening he received many callers at Mr. Almy's residence. Parties from New York are endeavoring to charter the steamer for the summer in this vicinity and it is possible that they will succeed. There is little prospect that there will be any steamer on the Watch Hill route this summer.

Crops Look Good.
We have recently looked over quite a portion of New London county and can say that the crops in general have not promised better for many years. The clip of wool now ready for market will not be quite as heavy as in former years. Farmers say that the fleeces are lighter than usual.
